Cannonball! The Ultimate Bad Boy Saleen

This summer, four hundred cars will begin a 2900 mile cross country ~~race~~ contest, originating from Miami, Atlanta, Washington

DC and New York. Inspired by Erwin G. "Cannonball" Baker, who set 143 American distance records, including a 53½ hour coast to coast solo drive averaging over 50 mph in 1933, and brought back to life by Tim "Maverick" Porter in 2001 - drivers will attempt to average a speed of 61 mph over the entire route (obtainable without going over the speed limit).

Erica Ortiz To Debut 2007 Twin Turbo PRO Mustang

Fresh off a stellar rookie season behind the wheel of a twin turbo

PRO car, Erica Ortiz looks to keep the momentum rolling in 2007 with significant upgrades in her racing program. The 26 year-old made monumental progress in her first year running the Fun Ford Weekend Pro 5.0 class, finishing 2nd in the points chase with consistent 6 second, 200 mph performances, and shattering the mold as the quickest and fastest woman in Fun Ford drag racing.
